1.4 Council Chairperson's Council Rally

Nomination for Council Chairperson: Mr Zeng Hui, Incoming President – SBS

Proposer: Jade Wee

Secunder: Kwok Meng Kei

1.4.1 Presentation:

Mr Zeng Hui mentioned that the council must have strong team spirit. He believed there is a need to create strong sense of bonding within the council. He described himself to be a people oriented yet serious person. He also stated that within the council, opposing views are important but in the end, it is still important to reach consensus. The council should aim to improve students' life in NTU. His aim for the council is to create a community where people are oriented to work together.

1.4.2 Question & Answer:

- Mr Teng Ting Shien, the outgoing council chairperson, asked about how Mr Zeng Hui will manage conflict in the council. Mr Zeng Hui replied that he will take a step back and will make decision according to students' welfare. He will try to prevent personal attacks from happening.
- Mr Teng Ting Shien asked about being the spokesperson of the council and if there is a media coverage, how Mr Zeng Hui will advise the council to face the media. Mr Zeng Hui replied that he would direct all the media enquiries to himself and figure the best way out to reply the media in an appropriate way.
- Mr Gabriel Chee, Incoming Union Representative of Sports Club, asked Mr Zeng Hui how he would build up the rapport within the council. Mr Zeng Hui replied that building rapport could be done through teambuilding, hanging out together and gathering. This will help to build strong bond.
- Mr Gabriel Chee asked Mr Zeng Hui about what kind of issues the council should discuss about during meeting. Mr Zeng Hui replied that the issues discussed should pertain to the welfare of the students, such as welfare, transport system.

- Mr Teng Ting Shien asked how Mr Zeng Hui will compensate his inexperience as a first timer in council. Mr Zeng Hui agreed that he is inexperience and he will compensate this by actively seek support from the members.
- Mr Teng Ting Shien asked how the council could help the students. Mr Zeng Hui replied that the council could help by providing feedbacks of NTU students to the school management.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked Mr Zeng Hui what he thinks he can do better than the outgoing council chairperson can. Mr Zeng Hui said that he is able to tackle problems better than Mr Teng is by doing so from a different point of view. He will also give new ideas and opinions because Mr Teng had being in the council for 2 years, so he might be too used to the situation. Mr Zeng being new to the council, he will take it more seriously. For that aspect, he will be better than he will.
- Mr Low Choon Chye, Incoming President – MAE, asked about how Mr Zeng Hui will tackle issues pertaining to SBS, despite the need to remain neutral. Mr Zeng replied that as council chairperson, he would give objective opinions, pros and cons. He will try to be more neutral.
- Ms Lee Hui Ling, Outgoing Vice-President(WSA), asked what reasons are consider valid to be absent from a council meeting. Mr Zeng Hui stated that being sick and urgent family matters are valid. However, personal reasons such as outing and relationship will not be accepted.
- Mr Nelson Ong, Outgoing President – NBS, asked what vision the 25th Council has and what Mr Zeng Hui wants to achieve as a Council Chairperson. Mr Zeng Hui replied that he would get opinions from the experienced people and outgoing council chairperson and continue discussing those ongoing matters.
- Mr Alvin Foo, Outgoing President – MAE, said that the school will always have the final say and students' power is limited. He asked Mr Zeng Hui how the council could go against it. Mr Zeng replied that agreement and disagreement of the council could be a good evidence showing whether the student population are in favour of the change.
- Mr Nelson Ong asked about Union Day and Election Day being on separate days and the school has already set aside the Union Day for the Academic Council Meeting, so how the Council can push for them to be on the same day. In addition, he also asked how to prevent the school from stop consulting the council. Mr Zeng Hui replied that consensus and compromises could be seek.
- Mr Alvin Foo asked whether Mr Zeng Hui is pro-student or pro-management. Mr Zeng replied that he is pro-student.
- Ms Elysia Tan Yee Ru, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, asked Mr Zeng Hui how he will manage those council members that are more senior than he is and how he can gain their trust. Mr Zeng Hui said that since they are more senior, he will listen to them but mutual respect should exist within the Council.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked whether Mr Zeng Hui is okay with council members forming clique and how he will control them and prevent it from affecting vote. Mr Zeng replied that he is okay with it as voting is closed.

- Mr Alvin Foo asked how Mr Zeng Hui would bond the Council together. Mr Zeng replied that the council could bond by having teambuilding games, singing session and supper nights.
- Mr Aaron Choo, Outgoing Human Resources Executive, asked about Mr Zeng Hui’s stand on intra-council relationship. Mr Zeng Hui replied that it is acceptable as long as it does not affect their work and he believed that the council is mature enough to handle the issue in their personal life.
- Mr Nelson Ong asked how Mr Zeng Hui would settle the issue of council member leaving the council due to their relationship. Mr Zeng will talk to them separately and emphasize their responsibilities of representing the students, so they will have to carry out this responsibility until the end of the term.
- Mr Henry Loh, Incoming President – HSS, asked whether Mr Zeng Hui has any plan to celebrate the 25th Council. Mr Zeng replied that this could be the first agenda.
- Mr Loh Zheng Jia, Incoming Union Representative – SBS, asked about whether it is possible to leave the weekend untouched. Mr Zeng Hui replied that he will try to keep council meeting to weekdays and if impossible, he will keep it short on weekends.
- Mr Quek Jun Ping, Outgoing President – SBS, asked Mr Zeng Hui how he would manage being the council chairperson, Biological Science Club president and studies. Mr Zeng said that his workload is not heavy and he has 2 capable vice-presidents to assist him
- Mr Alvin Foo asked Mr Zeng Hui about his priority. Mr Zeng answered that council meeting will come first.
- Mr Low Choon Chye asked Mr Zeng Hui about his leadership style. Mr Zeng said that he is a free and easy person and will try to be serious when come to work. He also hopes that everyone can be serious during work.

Mr Teng Ting Shien declared the end of question and answer question. He invited Mr Zeng Hui to leave the room for voting proceedings to take place.

2.	2.1 Propose to move to the second agenda Proposer: Kwok Meng Kei Seconder: Elysia 2.2 Honorary General Secretary’s Council Rally Nomination for Honorary General Secretary: Mr Gan Rui Yun, Incoming Union Representative – MAE Proposer: Gabriel Chee Seconder: Elysia Tan Yee Ru 2.2.1 Presentation Mr Gan Rui Yun shared his experiences and how these enabled him to understand the needs of students. He chose to run as a Honorary General Secretary because he believed that to have an effective NTUSU, trust have to be gained because this will lead to more effective voice, better services and more vibrancy. He stated that the process of gaining trust should start from within NTUSU through better internal governance system, better human resource policy and better operations and Student Activities Centre. 2.2.2 Question and Answer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Mr Goh Keller, Incoming President – NBS, asked how the three methods mentioned could lead to trust. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that the process is to build trust internally and if people inside NTUSU working committees can trust NTUSU, the trust will be able to project out and eventually lead to higher level of trust among students. ○ Mr Goh Keller stated that the outside could not see Internal Governance System, so he asked how this could be publicised. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that this would eventually show to the outside through the various events and services NTUSU does. ○ Mr Alvin Foo, Outgoing President – MAE, asked whether there would be a key performance indicators (KPIs) system in place. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that there would be one in place for the subcommittees, which the NTUSU executives will set with their chairperson. One of the KPIs will be attendance to gauge their commitment level. ○ Mr Alvin Foo asked about how transparency of NTUSU can be ensured. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that certain minutes can be publish online or within their own committees, depending on the sensitivity of the issues discussed. AAR will be done and should engage everyone involved. ○ Mr Low Choon Chye, Incoming President – MAE, asked how the subcommittee would be rewarded. Mr Gan Rui Yun said that currently only certificates are given out without much justification, so there is a need to make it more credible and more realistic award like vouchers can be given out. ○ Mr Low Choon Chye then asked about the penalty system. Mr Gan Rui Yun said that hall points won’t be given and after the keying in period, NTUSU will try to blacklist them together with other clubs and discuss with HAS about possible penalties. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked Mr Gan Rui Yun about the reason of not running in an event-based position. Mr Gan replied that when organising NTUSU events, he realised that there were barriers that will make an event

	unsuccessful. Thus, as a HGS, he wished to change it through standardisation and to generate a more positive and professional image for NTUSU. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Mr Gan Rui Yun how he would deal with NTUSU Executive that goes missing in action (MIA). Mr Gan said that it would depend on the extent of MIA and have penalty system in place to make sacking possible. ○ Mr Nelson Ong, Outgoing President – NBS, asked how Mr Gan Rui Yun would deal with the difficulties to contribute during council meeting. Mr Gan replied that he would try to do it during the regular Executive Committee meeting and let other executives bring his views into the council meeting. In addition, he said he would talk to the President of MAE Club if it concerns MAE students and try to balance between the council and students’ welfare whenever possible. ○ Mr Low Choon Chye asked Mr Gan Rui Yun how he could better represent MAE in council, as he is the union representative for MAE. Mr Gan said that since the Executive Committee will formulate most policies and hence, he can provide his input during Executive Committee meetings. He will try his his best to discuss with the President of MAE Club whenever possible. ○ Mr Tan Benjamin, Incoming President – WKWSCl, asked about the training initiative under human resource policy and the cost of it. Mr Gan Rui Yun will discuss the cost issue with the Honorary Finance Secretary and the training needs not require cost as some can be done in house. ○ Mr Chiang Wei Qiang, Incoming President – CAC, asked about the lack of communication during Welcome Week 2015. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that the internal liaison could consult CAC main club to find out their preference of communication and then, set up a protocol to see how to communicate. ○ Ms Neo Hui Ning, Melissa, Incoming President – NIE, asked how the sense of belonging could be created among the subcommittees members. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that this could be done by bonding them with the main committees through bonding day and appreciation dinner. ○ Mr Aaron Choo, Outgoing Human Resource Executive, asked about Mr Gan Rui Yun’s decision-making style. Mr Gan replied that his style is to set a general direction and ask for feedbacks, and then consider it to refine the decision before making a final one. He also states that he is open to changes but will only change it when the reasons are valid ○ Mr Alvin Foo asked how SAC could be improved. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that more student centric activities can be organised and need not be big. He also said that in the long term, he would look into how the environment can be made more student centric and not just another studying area. ○ Mr Henry Loh, Incoming President – HSS, asked how SAC could reach out to the students studying in South Spine. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that publicity can be done to engage them. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how Mr Gan Rui Yun will deal with the problem of unauthorised overnight usage of SAC. Mr Gan replied that Campus Security Division can be engaged and ask SAC subcommittee to do spot checks. In addition, publicity drive can be done.

- Mr Low Choon Chye asked whether FIFA competition will be a possible event. Mr Gan Rui Yun did not rule out this possibility.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how the usage of Global Lounge can be increased. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that Global Lounge is cut off by construction now and will explore all possibilities after construction. Currently, he will focus on making use of the space there to plan event and encourage clubs and societies to have event there.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked about the difference between SAC and Global Lounge. Mr Gan Rui Yun replied that Global Lounge is more suitable for networking and SAC is better suited for vibrant and exciting activities.
- Ms Lee Hui Ling, Outgoing Vice-President (WSA) asked about Mr Gan Rui Yun’s core values and what he sees himself after one year. Mr Gan replied that the core value is Impartial and he will try to keep everything he does neutral and transparent. After one year, he sees himself becoming a person that can communicate better and be a better organiser for bigger plan.
- Mr Aaron Choo asked whether Mr Gan Rui Yun would stand firm when making decisions with the rest of Top 5 with a different opinions. Mr Gan replied that he will stand firm if the other four’s opinion is not to the welfare of students. If not, he will take a step back and think of student welfare.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat gave a scenario that the hall points are given out wrongly to a subcommittee members and asked how Mr Gan Rui Yun will settle. Mr Gan replied that he would talk to the person together with his/her direct chairperson and Executive. Then, will reduce it to 5. If after application period, Mr Gan will try to make them stay on for another year. In addition, to prevent misunderstand, he is ready to clarify and send out mass email to explain the mistakes.
- Ms Wu Guoyi, Outgoing President, commented that Mr Gan Rui Yun is a responsible and hardworking Welcome Week Chairperson. She also states that in the absence of President, HGS will be the one to stand in for him and show him full support in terms of commitment.

Mr Zeng Hui declared the end of question and answer question. He invited Mr Gan Rui Yun to leave the room for voting proceedings to take place.

Mr Chee replied that FOC should integrate everybody and not mutually exclusive, so FOC should carry on. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked Mr Gabriel Chee about his view on NTUFest. Mr Chee stated that the objective of NTUFest is to raise money and bring clubs and students together to a platform to interact. The current model is not sustainable, so he proposed that NTUFest could be hold in school or Jurong. There is a need for council to realign the objectives, bring it up to management, and reassess objectives with aim for a more sustainable model in 2016. ○ Ms Jade Wee, Incoming President – EEE, asked about Mr Gabriel Chee’s take on UOC 15 cancellation. Mr Chee stated that he could not judge the decision because the exact facts are unknown, so he cannot judge on the decision. He believed the case was not handled very well and news of cancellation should be disseminated to the subcommittee first with rationale explained. In addition, news release could be done better. ○ Mr Kwang Yi Jing, Incoming Union Representative – NBS, asked Mr Gabriel Chee what he could do about the situation about halls being isolated. Mr Chee said that he had thought of having JCRCs in council to discuss issues related to them. ○ Ms Jolene Ang, Incoming Vice-President – Sports Club, asked Mr Gabriel Chee about the best duration for FOC. Mr Chee said that based on his experience, 4 days is the best length and need to relook whether there is a need to extend beyond 4 days because after that everyone will be exhausted.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Mr Gabriel Chee about his view on the cancellation of UOC 15. Mr Chee said that right things should be done but not the popular ones. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Mr Gabriel Chee about the plan of next UOC. Mr Chee said that there is an unmet need for people who don't stay in halls or interested in sports, culture and welfare services but want to interact. Thus, UOC should continue. ○ Mr Low Choon Chye, Incoming President – MAE, asked how every camp could be accommodated within 2 weeks period. Mr Gabriel Chee said compromise could be made to be fair to everyone. ○ Ms Wu Guoyi, Outgoing President, asked Mr Gabriel Chee what he would propose to the management for FOC. Mr Chee said it should remained unchanged if there's no operational constraint and compromise should be made by prioritising. ○ Ms Wu Guoyi asked about Mr Gabriel Chee's stand about intra-office romance within the Executive Committee. Mr Chee replied that it's not within his authority to decide other lives and involved personnel should exercise self-discipline and ensure no display of personal affection during official activities. ○ Ms Wu Guoyi asked Mr Gabriel Chee about the level of commitment he expected from the Executives. Mr Chee said he expected 101% commitment but will have Sunday as an off day for everyone. ○ Mr Teng Ting Shien, Outgoing Council Chairperson, asked Mr Gabriel Chee how he could ensure the executives will not be pressurised into following other executives' direction. Mr Chee said that close voting could be done to prevent this. ○ Ms Neo Hui Ning, Incoming President – NIE, asked how Mr Gabriel Chee would work around the differences between NTUSU president and council chairperson. Mr Chee replied that they should work together. ○ Mr Chiang Wei Qiang, Incoming President – CAC, asked whether Mr Gabriel Chee was indicating that Non-Academic Clubs are less important the Academic Club. Mr Chee said he did not mean that and his words should not be extrapolated. ○ Ms Lee Hui Ling asked whether there would be financial transparency. Mr Gabriel Chee said that for transparency, all council members should display their budget to everyone n council meeting. ○ Mr Teng Ting Shien asked Mr Gabriel Chee about the extent NTUSU should reply to NTU Confessions about NTUSU. Mr Chee replied that he does not believe in nameless online feedback, so will not reply. ○ Mr Aaron Choo, Outgoing Human Resource Executive, asked Mr Gabriel Chee why he did not run for President in 24th Executive Committee. Mr Chee said he wanted to go for exchange and it is of high importance to him. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked whether Mr Gabriel Chee is okay with executives going on exchange. Ms Elysia Tan replied yes. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked whether Ms Elysia Tan whether she is the type that scrimp and save or spend all. Ms Elysia Tan replied that she believes there is a need to have some leftover but she is not the type that will spend the very least. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked whether Ms Elysia Tan is for or against petty cash. Ms Elysia Tan said that she is against it because it is hard to track and there should be accountability. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how Ms Elysia Tan would will deal with the situation if vendor require NTUSU to pay $2000 upfront. Ms Elysia Tan replied that she will try to avoid paying upfront by negotiating with the vendor and will try not to get the sub-committee members to pay upfront. If the amount has been paid, she said she would try to teach them and get reimbursement for them. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how Ms Elysia Tan would will prevent sub-committees from overspending. Ms Elysia Tan said she would check on them closely and constantly remind them about their budget. She believed that what stated in black and white should be enforced and she will try to see if there are any other sub-committees that underspend to help those that are overspending. ○ Mr Gabriel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – Sports Club, asked Ms Elysia where she would draw the line between the duties and responsibilities of Honorary Financial Secretary and Finance Executive. Ms Elysia Tan said she would work closely with the Finance Executive to decide the line drawn. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked about the opinion of Ms Elysia Tan’s opinion on committee welfare like committee appreciation. Ms Elysia Tan replied that it will depends on the amount and if it’s not a lot, she will approve it because this is a way to thank them for their hard work and to drive them to work harder. However, she said this still will not justify for big amount spending and she will work closely with various committees to understand the need. ○ Mr Aaron Choo, Outgoing Human Resource Executive, asked how Ms Elysia Tan would justify the budget given to various sub-committees. Ms Elysia Tan said she will look at past

2.10 Human Resource Executive’s Council Rally

Nomination for Human Resource Executive: Ms Sim Xuan Wei, Incoming Union Representative – EEE

Proposer: Liniki

Seconder: Guo Weihao

2.10.1 Presentation

Ms Sim Xuan Wei elaborated that the role of Human Resource Executive includes learning and development of sub-committee members and bonding the sub-committee members. She also listed her experiences. She stated that the current human resource issue NTUSU is facing is having freeloaders in various sub-committees and she proposed to have a comprehensive system to deal this. In addition, she would like to encourage more interaction between different sub-committees and organise workshop and sharing sessions for the sub-committee members. She also listed the reasons she wanted to run for the position of Human Resource Executive.

2.10.2 Question and Answer

- Mr Aaron Choo, Outgoing Human Resource Executive, asked what Ms Sim Xuan Wei thinks her role is in the council. Ms Sim replied that her role in the council is to ensure that everyone is well equipped with the necessary skill sets.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked what Ms Sim Xuan Wei thinks she can do better than the outgoing Human Resource Executive. Ms Sim said that she could implement a system to penalise those freeloaders, which was not implemented by the predecessor.
- Mr Kwok Meng Kei, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, asked Ms Sim Xuan Wei what she could do to improve the situation of attendance for past sub-committee bonding day was not up to expectation. Ms Sim replied that the freshmen could be let known about the plans beforehand and plan games that are more interesting.

- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Ms Sim Xuan Wei for her opinion on the recent recruitment drive. Ms Sim felt that the briefing for the interviewers can be done earlier and the turnout was very good.
- Mr Gabriel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – Sports Club, asked whether Ms Sim Xuan Wei think that NTUSU should actively limit the number of international students on the sub-committees. Ms Sim said that there should be a balance for sub-committee because international students have different experiences back in their home countries and will be able to provide a fresh input. She also stated that she is not concern with the ratio.
- Mr Aaron Choo asked Ms Sim Xuan Wei about her plan for MIA personnel, including NTUSU executives, other than those mention in the presentation. Ms Sim believed that the system should apply to everyone from top to bottom and removal should be done if necessary to ensure fairness.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Ms Sim Xuan Wei what she expects from her immediate boss, the Honorary General Secretary. Ms Sim said he is straightforward and clear cut with his plan and did not have issue working with him for the past 2 years.

Seconder: Loh Zheng Jia

2.11.1 Presentation

Ms Rachel Chee presented about her experiences and the various sub-committees under the Welfare Executive’s charge, which includes Students’ Fund, Welfare Initiative Committee and Health Committee. In addition, she also proposed plans and initiatives to better improve the operations of the sub-committees.

2.11.2 Question and Answer

- Ms Miechie, Outgoing Welfare Executive, asked whether Ms Rachel Chee had considered the manpower issue when 2 points of collection for exam welfare pack. Ms Rachel Chee replied that she had considered this issue and will seek help from the logistics committee or even ambassadors if the budget allows.
- Mr Kwok Meng Kei, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, asked Ms Rachel Chee whether Welfare Executive is in charge of shuttle bus service in NTU and if yes, how she will improve them. Ms Rachel Chee replied yes and thought that internal shuttle buses should have higher frequency, especially in the morning and peak hours. As for external shuttle buses, she was not sure about the discussion between the 24th executive committee and school management. However, she understood that the school management wants to increase frequency and survey will be done if elected.

- Ms Miechie asked Ms Rachel Chee about the importance of health committee. Ms Rachel Chee replied that school could get too overwhelming sometime, especially during exam period. In addition, she also stated that stress is a concern and there is a need to promote good mental health at the same time.
- Ms Miechie asked Ms Rachel Chee about her take about BP mentoring being shifted to WSC and whether it will be better to be in WSC or NTUSU. Ms Rachel Chee said this allows NTUSU to better channel resources to other committees and BP mentoring suit better in WSC.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked whether NTUSU will provide more lecture pads with the increase in student enrolment and how many will NTUSU sponsor to each school. Ms Rachel Chee replied that it will depend on the increase and the take up rate of the school’s welfare pack.
- Mr Guo Jian Long, Incoming Vice-President – WSC, asked whether there will be any support from NTUSU to help ease off the resource strain on WSC due to the moving of BP Mentoring to WSC. Ms Rachel Chee replied that she could help to get the previous chairperson of BP mentoring to help guide the new chairperson.
- Mr Lai Sheng Lin, Incoming President – MSE, asked Ms Rachel Chee to elaborate on engaging students in the queue for welfare pack. Ms Rachel Chee replied that she would consider collaborating with various clubs and societies to perform or hold activities along the queue.

Mr Zeng Hui invited Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso back into the room for his rally.

2.14.2 Rally by 2nd Candidate (Yosua Nathanel Santoso)

2.14.2.1 Presentation

Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso presented on his experiences. He highlighted his objectives as a Business Project Executive (BPE) and they are to serve purpose of NTUSU's mission, to encourage entrepreneurship with student body and to build student spirit. He went through the structure of the sub-committees under BPE. In addition, he also talked about the key success factors for the 2 portfolios under BPE.

2.14.2.2 Question and Answer

- Ms Elysia Tan, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, asked what the objectives of Union Shop are and what the most pressing issue of Union Shop is. Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso replied that the objective is to build up the NTU pride and the most pressing issue is problem with payment process. He thought that the process had already been simplified but still unable to clear invoice in time due to procrastination and delays.
- Ms Elysia Tan asked how Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso can ensure that the invoice can be submitted as soon as possible. Mr Yosua said this could be done by getting and submitting the invoice as soon as possible and monitors the progress of submission to finance office.
- Mr Gabriel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – Sports Club, asked Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso to critically assess the outgoing BPE. Mr Yosua said he is a great person and had done a lot for the setting up of POS system, payment process and barcode system, hence simplifying the job of the subcommittee member. He also felt that the outgoing BPE could be more committed and do more.
- Mr Gabriel Chee asked Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso what the outgoing BPE had not done and Mr Yosua can improve on. Mr Yosua replied that the outgoing BPE did not meet up with the sub-committees, hence a gap between them. He added that he would do things together with the sub-committee, so they can feel the care and concern. Therefore, able to prevent sub-committee members from going MIA.
- Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat, Outgoing Honorary Financial Secretary, asked about Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso's personal feel about NTU Co-Op. Mr Yosua said that booth Union

	Shop and NTU Co-Op have the purpose to sell NTU merchandises and boost the NTU pride. He added that Union Shop is about students' interest and this should be reflect in its products and has a record of accomplishment, which NTU Co-Op does not have, so not wise to handover Union Shop to NTU Co-Op. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ms Elysia Tan asked Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso what factors he will consider when choosing the venue for U-flea market. Mr Yousua replied that human traffic is the main factors and felt that the size of 25 to 30 vendors is too big for the link way, so he considered Nanyang Auditorium and Tan Chin Tuan Pavilion to be more viable. ○ Ms Elysia Tan said that Nanyang Auditorium may be too heavy a financial burden and hence, asked whether Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso concurred with her view. Mr Yosua said U-flea market could collaborate with other event with cost shared by both parties. ○ Mr Gabriel Chee asked which location Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso thought is better. Mr Yosua replied that based on cost, Tan Chin Tuan Pavilion will be better but both locations do not have high human traffic, so the most important part is to make the events engaging and interesting. He added it is about how to make the event better. ○ Ms Elysia Tan asked how Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso thinks NTUSU can actually boost the publicity to the student for U-flea market. Mr Yosua replied posters at bus stops, EDM, Instagram and Facebook can be put up to call for vendors and it will publicise for the event at the same time. He added that a publicity booth could be set up one week before the event to attract vendor and publicise about the event. ○ Mr Liniki, Incoming Union Representative – WSC, asked whether collaboration with Students' Fund is sustainable in the end. Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso replied no, because he thought that there are two different interests and the processes will be hectic as there might be clashes over administrative issues. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso would deal with external vendors that have issues with late payment. Mr Yosua said he would let them know about the problems and constraints NTUSU is facing when Union Shop first contacted the vendors; hence, it is up to them to decide. He thought that communication is the key by updating them about the progress of payment. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked how Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso would deal with the situation of vendor not wanting to supply Union Shop anymore and it will take a long time to find a new vendor. Mr Yosua said communication and discussion would have to be done again to find out what went wrong. He added that he would try his very best not to procrastinate and get invoices processed by the finance office as soon as possible. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat said that Union Shop and NTU Co-Op are selling the same type of products but just different design. He added that the revenue of Union Shop might decrease over time due to the presence of a new competitor. He asked Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso what Union Shop could do better than NTU Co-Op. Mr Yosua said that the Union Shop will be filled with vibrancy and will work closely with students to differentiate from NTU Co-Op. ○ Mr Hendry Donald Hanesty Sinurat asked Mr Yosua Nathanael Santoso to convince the Council why the Council need to vote for him. Mr Yosua said he has the right experience

He then suggested solutions for the issues. 2.18.2 Question and Answer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ms Neo Hui Ning, Incoming President – NIE, asked what NTUSU can offer to the clients and how NTUSU can differentiate from other universities. Mr Kwang Yi Jing replied that NTUSU can offer the publicity and outreach the clients need and in addition, they can set up booth during NTUSU events. ○ Mr Henry Loh, Incoming President – HSS, said that despite the aggressive publicity to blast out to the students about client, it is still unable to arouse the students’ interest and he thought this is the problem. He asked for Mr Kwang Yi Jing’s opinion on this. Mr Kwang Yi Jing suggested having a placard at the merchant outlets and reach out to business managers in all the clubs to spread about the deal for NTU students. ○ Mr Henry Loh followed up with a question, which was whether Mr Kwang Yi Jing will foresee any problem in reaching out to those business managers mentioned earlier. Mr Kwang replied that the reach out can be done though the power of friendship and the benefits of school wide discount. ○ Ms Elysia Tan, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, remarked that larger companies will not care about the email by NTUSU and those that replied are the medium ones. She asked whether Mr Kwang Yi Jing would consider the smaller ones. Mr Kwang said yes, as long as the smaller companies are able to benefit the students. ○ Mr Henry Loh asked Mr Kwang Yi Jing how NTUSU could reach out to bigger companies. Mr Kwang replied that NTUSU could send down Corporate Liaison team members down to negotiate with target set and offer them with publicity. ○ Ms Neo Hui Ning wanted to know how NTUSU’s deal with AIA insurance company benefit the students. Mr Kwang replied that $6000 cash and 4000 paper bags were the return. ○ Mr Henry Loh asked whether NTUSU could accept sponsorship from other insurance companies that are offering higher sponsorship than AIA, despite the long-standing relationship with NTUSU. Mr Kwang Yi Jing said that the contract is renewed yearly, so it is possible to accept. ○ Ms Neo Hui Ning said that AIA is using aggressive promotion methods, which annoyed the students, so she wanted to know whether the benefits could justify this. Mr Kwang said that Personal Data Protection clause is on the form and there is termination clause in the contract to safeguard the students’ welfare. ○ Mr Goh Keller, President – NBS, remarked that there are different agencies under one insurance company and there are many of such agencies working in NTU. He wanted to know whether student life in NTU would be affected. Mr Kwang Yi Jing said that NTUSU cannot control other clubs’ sponsors and he advised the business managers of clubs to have strict terms and conditions written in the contract.

- Ms Elysia Tan asked Mr Kwang Yi Jing to evaluate the past result of Integrated Career Opportunities Network (ICON). Mr Kwang described ICON and said there is a lack in publicity because there is a need to have a standalone publicity team.
- Mr Gabriel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – Sports Club, said that not all the clients put up NTUperks placard, so he wanted to know what plan Mr Kwang Yi Jing had in mind to prevent this. Mr Kwang Yi Jing said that random spot checks can be conducted and warning will be given before termination of contract.
- Mr Gabriel Chee remarked that asking for exam welfare pack’s sponsorship is more effective if lesser number is asked, so he wanted to know Mr Kwang Yi Jing’s take on this. Mr Kwang said he could not provide a definite answer.
- Mr Gabriel Chee said that NTUSU should not engage insurance companies to come into NTU during or nearing examination period. He wanted to know Mr Kwang Yi Jing’s opinion on this. Mr Kwang agreed.
- Mr Gabriel Chee asked whether NTUSU should accept sponsorship from other banks if approached. Mr Kwang Yi Jing replied that first priority should be given to OCBC.
- Mr Gan Rui Yun, Incoming Union Representative – MAE, asked how the miscommunication between sub-committees and corporate liaison team can be solved. Mr Kwang Yi Jing said the secretary of the team will be put in charge in liaise with the sub-committees.

Mr Zeng Hui declared the end of question and answer question. He invited Mr Kwang Yi Jing to leave the room for voting proceedings to take place.

He talked about the improvements he wanted to implement for the sub-committees under Publications and Publicity Executive (PE). He listed his objectives when elected were to manage design matters, to ensure corporate image and to provide timely news update. To achieve his objectives, he will implement major changes and update the job-scope of the sub-committees.

2.19.2 Question and Answer

- Ms Rachel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – SBS, asked what if the demand of design works come in with less than a 1-month lead-time. Mr Kelvin Teheri said he will counter this by assigning 2 or 3 design works to each member and any extra work will be given to the one least busy. In addition, he suggested giving to directors to do it if it is needed urgently.
- Mr Hoh Shi Teng, Incoming President – SPMS, asked Mr Kelvin Teheri to rate his skills. Mr Kelvin rated himself 4 out of 5.
- Mr Tan Kwang Boon, Incoming President – ADM, asked whether the director would have the final say for the designs. Mr Kelvin said discussion would be done and opinion would be taken into consideration.
- Mr Tan Kwang Boon asked whether Mr Kelvin Teheri thought that the NTUSU branding is strong. Mr Kelvin replied that the branding of NTUSU had been in place for the past 3 years and more could be done to improve the image of NTUSU.
- Ms Neo Hui Ning, Incoming President – NIE, asked how NTUSU could reach out to NIE students. Mr Kelvin Teheri said posters and e-magazines could be up at NIE blocks.
- Mr Liu Hongze, Incoming President – CEE, asked how NTUSU events could be promoted to CEE students. Mr Kelvin Teheri replied that he would work closely with CEE club, through the President – CEE, to promote the events.
- Mr Liniki, Incoming Union Representative – WSC, asked whether there would be standard operating procedure to request for design. Mr Kelvin Teheri replied yes.
- Mr Liniki asked whether the one-month lead-time is necessary. Mr Kelvin Teheri replied that if there is a need, the design team could do it in no time.
- Mr Liniki asked how the lifestyle section in U-Herald would be different from the one in Nanyang Chronicle. Mr Kelvin Teheri said both cover different things and the purpose for this section in U-Herald is to improve NTUSU’s corporate image.
- Mr Tan Benjamin, Incoming President – WKWSC, asked about the readership, frequency and mode of distribution. Mr Kelvin Teheri answered that the frequency will be monthly and it will be distributed online. He did not have the readership number as it is still new.
- Mr Tan Benjamin asked how the standard of journalism could be ensured. Mr Kelvin Teheri said that the two directors have prior experience and the main aim of the publication is about NTUSU events.

Mr Zeng Hui declared the end of question and answer question. He invited Mr Kelvin Teheri to leave the room for voting proceedings to take place.

Mr Loh Zheng Jia replied that he is committed to the success of UOC16 and will be willing to compromise to move towards the new direction. ○ Mr Low Choon Chye asked what role Mr Loh Zheng Jia sees himself playing in preventing FOCs to be shifted to orientation week. Mr Loh Zheng Jia thought that the shift makes sense because it orientated people and people might not have been able to take part in it due to other commitments, so after matriculation, it will be beneficial for the freshmen. ○ Ms Rachel Chee asked how Mr Loh Zheng Jia would deal with last minute hiccup during UOC. Mr Loh replied that commitment of group leaders with the framework of deterrence and incentives can help to assure no manpower hiccup. He will seek the council’s help and work with council to work around issues that are not due to failure in planning. ○ Mr Chiang Wei Chiang, Incoming President – CAC, asked Mr Loh Zheng Jia how he would go about selecting the UOC committee, as he did not attend any orientation camp before. Mr Loh replied that he will based selection on the relevant experiences he had and consult with fellow executives and friends to find the most suitable people and bring them in. ○ Mr Guo Jianlong, Vice-President – WSC, asked what Mr Loh Zheng Jia meant by overlooking UOC. Mr Loh said he meant involve in 20% and help to ensure direction and spending within budget. ○ Mr Henry Loh advised Mr Loh Zheng Jia to join UOC as a neutral to keep himself in the loop and prevent the UOC committee to stop coming to him. Mr Zeng Hui declared the end of question and answer question. Her aims in this position are to make an impact by engaging, raise awareness for NTUSU, and meet the mission statement of NTUSU. She wanted to start initiatives to involve students by encouraging feedback to provide survey with incentive, provide timeline of getting feedback and engage students. She will make full use of opportunities available to interact and gather data. 2.24.2 Question and Answer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ms Elysia Tan, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, asked whether Ms Grace Foo sees herself being a year one student to be an advantage or a disadvantage. Ms Foo replied that she thought that as a year 1 student, she would be able to provide a fresh perspective and new idea, despite the steep learning curve. ○ Mr Kwang Yi Jing, Incoming Union Representative – NBS, asked whether Ms Grace Foo will be coming up of the surveys and whether the executive committee will be let known of the surveys. Ms Foo said she would seek advice and craft up the survey. In addition, she stated she would seek help from all council members to help disseminate the surveys. ○ Mr Henry Loh, Incoming President – HSS, asked why Ms Grace did not choose to run in HSS club election or join NTUSU sub-committees first. Ms Foo said that since she was given the opportunity, she should grab it. ○ Mr Henry Loh asked how detailed will the detailed survey be and whether Ms Grace Foo think that those incentives will be good enough to get people to do the surveys. Ms Grace Foo replied that incentives can be discussed and she will create the survey by gathering feedbacks widely. ○ Mr Henry Loh asked whether Ms Grace Foo has a budget and a sample size in mind. Ms Grace Foo answered 5000 for sample size. Mr Loh followed up by telling Ms Foo it's good to be realistic. Ms Elysia Tan, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, felt that if the sample size should be able to meet the requirement and there is no need to be too big. Mr Kwok Meng Kei, Incoming Union Representative – CAC, also added that 1000 to 2000 is already an achievement. ○ Ms Rachel Chee, Incoming Union Representative – SBS, asked how Ms Grace Foo is going to work with sub-committee when they are older. Ms Grace Foo replied she will do it by servant leadership and having fun together will be able to bring the team together. ○ Mr Goh Kang Siong, Incoming President – LKCSOM, whether Ms Grace Foo foresees data crunching is quite complex and long. Ms Grace Foo said yes and she will manage it with proper time management. ○ Mr Aloysius Voo, Incoming Union Representative – NBS, commented that even when NTU promises prizes for surveys, the take-up rate is not that high, so he asked what Ms Grace
